Dear Friend,

Plan to attend our 3rd Lymphedema Care Forum, scheduled for Saturday, October 22, 2005, from 8am-5pm in the Hiram Morgan Hill Room at the Morgan Hill, CA Community and Cultural Center. This is a beautiful new facility at the corner of Dunne Ave. and Monterey Road in Morgan Hill, CA. with ample, free off- street parking.

Presentations HIGHLIGHT: Advancements in Lymphatic Research; Directional flow garments – Why, When and How They’re Used in Treating Lymphedema, Wounds and Venous Complications; Psychoneuroimmunology (the study of the interaction of the psyche, neuro, and immune system); Advanced Bandaging Class for Lymphedema Therapists; 2 Patient Case Studies presented by the patients themselves; detailed information about insurance problems: “Who To Contact When Your Insurance Company Doesn’t Pay”; a patient panel discussion: Living with Lymphedema – A Patient’s Perspective.

Exhibitors will be displaying products and services for not only specialized lymphedema care, but also those that aid in total patient wellness, for example: intimate apparel such as bras, prostheses and wigs; specialized cancer care products; skin and wound care products; compression bandaging and garments; special dietary aids and nutritional support; progress reports in lymphedema research; and new technology in the treatment of lymphedema, wound and skin care.

CEU’s & CME’S - available to all nurses, physicians, and advanced lymphedema therapists who attend the Forum. Cost: general admission ($25.00) + $35.00 for nurses and therapists, $50 for physicians. (9 contact hours)

Distribution: over 21,000 invitations will be sent out and only 250 people may attend. General admission is $25.00/person and includes: continental breakfast and finger foods throughout the day, lymphedema care packet, free parking, and access to miscellaneous exhibitors’ handouts. You will receive final Forum brochure and program 2 months prior to the Forum.

To assure your seating, make your reservations early. Fax/email/mail forms.
